WHAT ARE BUBBLES?

"What are bubbles?" asked a child,

Gazing, with bewildered eyes,

On the spheres of fairy form,

Glittering with the rainbow dyes;

"They seem to sail so gaily on;

Yet when I grasp them they are gone."

What are bubbles?—Careless boy,

Thou ask'st a question wise

With a stern meaning deeply trac'd

On the varied page of life;

And a voice, with sadness fraught,

Answers from the cells of thought:

Hopes are bubbles, born to burst

When their hues the brightest seem;

And the joy, that o'er our path

Scatters a delusive gleam,

Like bubbles sparkling in the sun,

Are only bright when shone upon.

Fame, ambition, the delights

We have longed for years to clasp,

Won at length, through toil and strife,

Perish in our eager grasp:

Grief and gladness—pleasure, troubles,

All alike are empty bubbles!

Life's a bubble, bright and brief,

And its ever changing dyes

With a surer brilliance glow,

As it mounts towards the skies;

Till wasted on Time's passing breath,

'Tis shattered by the touch of death.

A COUPLE OF STRAY LEAVES.

Leave the first—Six months after Marriage.

"Well, my dear, will you go to the party to night? you know we have a very polite invitation."

"Why, my love, just as you please, you know I always wish to consult your pleasure."

"Well, then, Harriet, suppose we go—that is if you are perfectly willing; now don't say yes, because I do, for you know that where you are, there am I perfectly happy."

"Why my love, you will enjoy yourself

there, I am sure; and wherever you are happy, I shall be, of course. What dress shall I wear, William?—my white satin with blond, or my ashes of roses, or my levantine, or my white lace; you always know better than I about such things."

"Harriet, dearest, you look beautiful in any thing, now take your own choice tonight,—but I think you look very well in the white satin."

"There, William dear, I knew you would think just as I did—oh! how happy we shall be to night, and you must promise not to leave me there for a moment; for I shall be so sad if you do."

"Leave thee, dearest, leave the!

No! by yonder star I swear!"

"Oh William, dearest William, how beautiful that is, you are always learning poetry to make me happy."

"And Harriet, my own prized Harriet, would I not do anything in the world to give you one moment's happiness? Oh, you are so very, very dear to me, it seems at times almost too much happiness to last."

"Oh, do not say so dear William, it will last—and we shall see many years happier than this, for will not our love be stronger and deeper every year; and now dearest,

I will be back in one moment, and then we will go."

"There she has gone, bright and beautiful creature she is—Oh, how miserable I should be without her—she has indeed a spell around my heart, and one that never no, never can be broken; she is the only star of my existence, guiding me on to virtue and happiness, and can I ever love her less than now?—can I ever desert her; can

I ever speak of her in less than terms of praise? Oh, it is impossible—she is too good, too pure; happy, happy man that I am."

Leave the Second—Six years after marriage.

"My, dear, I will thank you to pass the sugar, you didn't give me but one lump."

"Well, Mr. Snooks, I declare, you use sugar enough in your tea to sweeten a a hoghead of vinegar; James, keep your singers out of the sweetmeats; Susan, keep still bawling; I declare it is enough to set one distracted—there, take that, you little wretch."

"Why, Harriet, what has the child done?"

I declare you are rather too hasty."

"I wish Mr. Snooks, you'd mind your own business; you're always meddling with what don't concern you."

"Well Mrs. Snooks, I want to know who has a better right than I have—you are always fretting and fuming about nothing."

"Pa, Thomas is tearing your newspaper all up."

"Thomas, come here—how dare you abuse—I'll teach you to tear it again-there, sir, how does that feel—now go to bed."</

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 28, 1846.

The funeral procession of Mr. Stanford, yesterday, presented a truly solemn sight. Mr. S. being a Mason, was buried under the Masonic Order, which added very much to the solemnity of the scene.—The procession was headed by the Tyler, with drawn sword, then followed the German Band, St. John's Lodge, No 1, Eleusis, Mourners, and citizens generally. Such scenes, we think, are well calculated to make a deep and lasting impression on the minds of those who are not devoid of all feeling.

A proposition to divide Texas into two States, making the Brazos river the line of separation, has been made.

FALL RIVER.—In Fall River, the valuation this year $4,024,535 of real, and $2,550,227 of personal estate, or a gain of $340,518 on real and $341,754 on personal valuation from the previous year. The population in May, 1846, was 11,174, and in May, '45, 10,290, or an increase of 884 in one year.

"The man that smokes in the omnibus" has at last arrived at Newport; we saw him puffing away at an old pipe very lustily, the other day.

Mr. Du Solle, the able Editor of the Philadelphia Spirit of the Times, has been travelling in Europe for some months past, during which time he has furnished a series of interesting letters to his readers. He has recently returned home, and now announces that he shall publish a volume entitled "Pictures abroad," in which his impressions and observations of men and things in the old world, will be given. There is nothing strained or unnatural in his descriptions, but, on the contrary, a freshness and simplicity of style that is really beautiful. He wields a ready and polished pen, and his book will be of a very interesting nature.

HARRISON'S COLUMBIAN INK.—We have tried this article, and find it fully equal to the strong recommendation given of its virtues. It flows freely from the pen; and, although pale when first used, very soon becomes jet black. There is no sediment in this ink. For sale by the agent, C. G. C. Hazard.

CALIFORNIA PRICES CURRENT.—The prices of horses are from $20 to $50, mares from $7 to $25; cattle $3,50 to $15; American cattle and horses generally are about 25 per cent higher than the stock of California. Every thing else is very high—Plows, such as we have at $7 are worth $35, and even $50, and very hard to get at those prices; axes $5; cooking vessels about 30 cents per lb; all sorts of iron tools or vessels very high; clothing of every description about five times what they cost with us; common yarn socks $2 a pair.

Labor is also high; common hands $1,50 per day; mechanics $2 to $3; mill-wrights $1 per day. Wheat is worth now $2 to $3; beans $1,50; peas $1,50; potatoes 40 cts. per robe (25 lbs.)

COST OF WAR.—The whole amount of appropriations made during the last session of Congress was about $51,144,000, of which sum at least $38,000,000 was appropriated for warlike purposes; being nearly four millions more than two thirds of the whole appropriation of the session.

The editor of the New London Star says he has been presented with a beautiful steel-beed purse, by a young lady. * * * Jim, lend us a quarter, when you get it full.—Daily News.

We acknowledge the receipt of a "quarter," from the editor of the Star, accompanying which, was the following letter:

STAR OFFICE,

New London, August 24th, '46.

DEAR JACK:—Always willing to assist my friends to the full amount solicited, I send that quarter, which you seemed to be in want of. And here let me add, that the appeal to my subscribers—the very best list enjoyed by any newspaper in the world—was promptly responded to, and I have the proud satisfaction of saying that my purse is full. Don't envy ME MY friends. Truly yours,

SCOFIELD.

We are happy to learn that our old, and highly esteemed friend Scofield, is getting along so prosperously. Envy you? certainly not—only in the relation you hold to that young lady.

But will not the loan of that "quarter" distress your financial affairs?

Providence, August 26th.

MY DEAR JACKSON:

A stranger in Providence, I can only give you "first impressions;" these are decidedly in favor of the old town, and the descendants of its pilgrim founder. The hand of Providence is certainly extended over it.—It flourishes like a "green bay tree." Fifty thousand people are here living, loving, beging, and languishing, within a circle of ten miles in diameter. Among others, Church—the witty Church—the "fishing in troubled waters" Church, is dealing out democracy to the credulous posterity of Roger Williams. I had the pleasure, today, of dining with the aforesaid Church, on codfish and clam chowder, at Foster's restaurant, and my sides are still sore with laughing at the fellow's witisms. God bless the good fellows; they are the salt and the oil of life's salad. The New York ears will not wait for a king, so I must conclude, by bidding to you and Newport the nnwelcome and woe-breathing word, adieu.

M. R.

The Rev. Thomas Pomp, who resides at Easton, Pa., during the last fifty-years has married 1,975 couples; baptized 7,617 children; confirmed 3,586; and attended 1,640 funerals. He preached his first sermon in July 1796, and had at that time four congregations. He still continues to devote himself to the duties of his station, although fast approaching eighty years of age.

A TRACT BUILDING A CHURCH.—A correspondent of the American Messenger states that a tract was carried, about a year since, into a destitute neighborhood in Virginia, where it fell into the hands of a young man, who read it, became interested, started a Sabbath School, then a prayer meeting, and then a subscription to build a church. The House was built, and last fall the people applied to the Washington Presbytery to recommend to them a preacher.

A NEWSPAPER PRINTED ON SILK.—In Pekin, China, a newspaper of extraordinary size is published weekly on silk. It is claimed to have been in existence more than one thousand years. It is said that in 1727, a public officer caused some false intelligence to be inserted in this newspaper, for which he was put to death. Several numbers of the paper are preserved in the boys' library of Paris, which are ten and a quarter yards long.

BRIS.—Dr Waterman gives in the Cleveland Herald, his mode of catching the big miller or moth. He says, I took two white dishes, (I think white attracts their attention in the night,) or deep plates, and placed them on the top of the hives, and filled them about full of sweetened vinegar. The next morning I had about fifty millers caught; the second night I caught fifty more; the third night being cold, I did not get any; the fourth night being very warm, I caught about four hundred. Most of these were most likely bee moths.

There have been in all seven attempts made to assassinate Louis Philippe, the King of the French.

Cotton culture is about to be attempted in Turkey, the Sultan having engaged two American planters for the purpose, who will set sail immediately. The soil and climate of Turkey, it is said, are better adapted to the cultivation of Cotton than those of India.

C. Edwards Lester, it is said, is writing the list of Sam Houston.

It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, that the Boston Olympic Vaudeville Company, who have been performing in Providence for the last three months to crowded and delighted audiences, have leased the new Odd Fellows Hall opposite the Custom House, and will commence their entertainment with the grand moral drama of Rosina Meadows, which has drawn a succession of crowded audiences, unprecedented in the annals of the drama. An entertainment like this has long been a desideratum in Newport, and will no doubt meet with substantial patronage from the citizens.

PROVINCE, Feb. 26, 1846.

Doctor Boardman.—Dear Sir—I now take my pen to inform you that my wife's health has improved very fast for the last two weeks from wearing one of your Laces. She has been out of health about two years and has worn a different Supporter from yours, which had only two pads. She received some benefit from that—but it would not produce a cure. But now I can say with pleasure that she is as smart as any of the young girls in the neighborhood. She can now run up and down stairs as fast as I can, and I feel so well pleased with it that I hardly know how or what to write. But one thing I do now, that she has been under the care of seven Doctors in one year—and wearing your Lace two weeks has or will do the cure in a very short time. I want to write more, but I have no time. I am truly, your friend and well-wisher.

Doctor Boardman, proprietor of Bannings celebrated Patent Body Brace, for this state, has taken rooms at No. 8, Broad street, where he may be consulted, free of charge. He is enabled to treat, successfully, cases of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Headaches, Deafness, loss of Voice, Bronchitis, Weakness and curvatures of the spine, and chronic diseases generally. He is enabled to refer to numerous cases in Providence, and this town.

Aug 28

Owing to previous arrangements Manchester & brother will be under the necessity of closing their Daguerreotype Rooms, corner of Thames and Mary-streets, Newport, within a short time, (probably eight or ten days,) therefore would say to the good people of this place who wish to present their friends with an invaluable memento, that they can never do better than to give us a call soon. Young lady, bring in that venerable father and watchful mother, and secure a good likeness to-day, for tomorrow it may be too late. Mothers, bring in those little ones with curling hair and sparkling eyes; they will make pretty pictures, and then should they be taken from you, you can exclaim, in the language of the poet:

'Gone to their rest, yet we would not recall them Back to this region of sorrow and pain;
Gone to their rest where no ill can befall them—
Yet we have their likeness both perfect and plain.'

August 18th 1816. BENJ. MUMFORD.

From the Brooklyn Daily Advertiser.

—A BEAUTIFUL YOUNG LADY residing in W. street in this city, has received great and unexpected benefit from the use of that excellent specific RADWAY'S CHINESE MEDICATED SOAP. Some few weeks since she was on a visit to some of her relatives in South New Jersey, where she was very severely bitten by mosquitoes, being at the same time very much exposed to the scorching rays of the Sun, she experienced great pain, and irritation from the effects of the mosquitoes, and much annoyance from the unnatural darkness of her tanned complexion. We recommended her to use that excellent Medicated Compound, RADWAY'S CHINESE MEDICATED SOAP, she complied with our request, and in three days there was not a single spot, blemish, pimple or blotch left upon her skin, and her complexion is now as fair as the lily.

Ladies, secure without delay a cake of this estimable Soap, it will purify your skin, improve your complexion and remove all disfigurements entirely from the surface of your system. Price 12-12 cents per cake. Sold in Newport by R. J. TAYLOR, Agent.

You will excuse, kind reader, the above innocent deception to induce you to read this advertisement, as it is for your benefit as well as our own.

RE-OPENING OF THE UNITED STATES CLOTHING STORE.

A still greater revolution in the sale of READY MADE CLOTHING. New Store and new Goods, at the old stand, where the public have been favored with so many good bargains. 91 Thames street, one door north of Messrs. W. B. & E. J. SWAN'S.

THE PROPRIETOR of this Establishment has the pleasure of informing the people of Newport and its vicinity, that he has leased the new and commodious store, 91 Thames street, for the purpose of carrying on the Ready Made Clothing Business, where the public may be assured that they will always find on hand the largest assortment of Clothing and Furnishing Goods in the place, as well as the lowest prices. If I can induce the people to call upon me, I will give them the most positive proof of the truth of this assertion, as I am determined to secure for the United States Clothing Store a tremendous run of custom, and, aware as I am, that competition is so severe, that the only mode of success is to offer my Goods at a small advance on Cost. Will the people call upon me? I will give them the most positive and pleasing evidence of what I say; still more, I will not urge them with undue persuasion to purchase what they do not want. The custom of forcing goods upon people has become so prevalent that they are sorely perplexed to know where they can go and be allowed the use of their own judgment in selection of Goods. Once more I beseech you to call and examine my stock of Clothing and Furnishing Goods, before purchasing elsewhere, which consists of a large and good assortment of FROCK and DRESS COATS, of a variety of styles and colors; also, a large quantity of TWEED FROCK and SACK COATS; 2 or 3 dozen of the GOLD MIXED TWEED, a most beautiful article for summer, Kentucky Jeans, and a great variety of other kinds, too numerous to mention.

CORNS!

MADAM BERHARD, Corn Doctor, (from Paris) politely announces her arrival from N. York, to the citizens and visitors of Newport, and will feel obliged to those who will honor her with a call, at Mr. ELISHA S. KENYON'S, corner of Thames and Young-streets, the honor to inform the public that, by a new and peculiar method, she extracts Hard and Soft Corns, Bunion, Callous, &c., Without Cutting.

Madam B. does not attempt to offer a nostrum, requiring secrecy or faith to require its efficacy, but confidently assuring those who may suffer from troublesome and painful Corns, that they may have the satisfaction of carrying away their tormentor, their Corn, in their hands.

Madam B. has been practising in the U. States for six years, and in that time she has received testimonials from some of the most eminent ladies and gentlemen, as to the benefit and comfort which they have received since their feet have been attended to by her. The operation will not occupy more than 10 minutes, and the relief is so instantaneous that persons thus treated can put on their shoes and walk without the least inconvenience.

Madam B. has practised her profession for several years in Boston, New York, Germany, France, and England, and has acquired much skill, and great practical experience—a fact attested by numerous certificates from the most celebrated physicians both of Europe and America, as well as from the nobility and gentry of those countries, delivered to her after four month's cure.

Ladies and gentlemen will be waited upon at their residence.

Ladies and gentlemen who wish Madam B.'s services, are invited to call as soon as possible.

Madam B. has in her possession upwards of 1,500 certificates.

From the Philadelphia Enquirer and Courier

RELIEF TO THE AFFLICTED.—We alluded a few days since to the remarkable, efficacious and painless method adopted by Madam Berhard, of 450 Broadway, N. Y. and 151 Court street, Boston, in extracting Corns and curing troublesome Tufts of the scurf. We are now induced to refer again to the subject, partly in consequence of more than one friend having called upon us to record their testimony as to the sudden and entire relief they have experienced from the operation of Professor; and chiefly because so many persons are in the habit of advertising remedies for Corns, &c., which are mere empiricism and pretence. The parties who are now in our office, and who have been under the treatment of Madam Berhard, assure us that they did not experience the slightest pain during the process of extraction, and that it was accomplished with an almost magical celerity. We observe also that some of the most eminent Physicians, both of Boston and New York, as well as of this city, have given testimonials to the above effect to Madam Berhard, the writers having experienced a relief from Corns, which had pained them for years. From the Boston Atlas.

Madam Berhard, at 151 Court street, is said by those who have experienced relief at her hands, to effect a radical cure of the most inveterate corns. There is said to be no mistake about it. It is a great discovery, and we recommend all the afflicted to try.

The Attorney General arose and read the Indictment, which was as follows:

At the Supreme Court of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, holden at Newport, within and for the County of Newport, on the Fourth Monday of August, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-six:

The Grand Jurors of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, in and for the body of the County of Newport, upon their oaths present, that Julia Donnally, Comigrant in Newport, in the aforesaid County of Newport, Spinster, on the twenty-fourth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, at Tiverton, in the aforesaid County of Newport, being then and there pregnant with a female bastard child, did bring forth the said child of the body of her the said Julia Donnally, and was then and there willingly delivered thereof; which said child so being born, and so being the issue of the body of the said Julia Donnally, if it were born alive, was a bastard; and that she the said Julia Donnally did then and there conceal the birth of the said child, the said issue of her body, so that it might not be known whether the said child was born alive or dead,—against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State.

And the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do further present, that the said Julia Donnally, at Tiverton aforesaid, in the aforesaid County of Newport, on the twenty-fourth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, being then and there pregnant with a female child which, were it born alive, was a bastard, was then and there willingly delivered in secret, by herself, of the said female child, the issue of her body, so that it might and may not be known, whether the said female child was born dead or alive,—against the form of the Statute in such case made, and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State.

Mr. Blake briefly stated the case to the Jury, showing what the law was, and what he expected to prove; he then called the following witness:

Catharine Donnally, sworn.—Am the sister of Julia Donnally; been in this country eight months; sister been here some time; came from New York; was never married, neither was Julia.

Cross Examination.—Came to Fall River from New York, and went into the White Mill; sister and brother went into the same Factory; Julia did not remain there long; Julia boarded at Charles Carr's until she went to Judge Durfee's to live; she got eight dollars a month at the Factory; lived in Queen's County in Ireland; did not live in the same house with her there, but used to see her every Sunday; from the time she left Ireland, until she went to Judge Durfee's to live, I was with her all the time; never discovered her pregnancy.

Direct.—Julia lived with Mr. Delany before she came to this country; he kept a cloth shop, and had apprentices who boarded with him; she lived there about three quarters of a year.

Thomas Brown, sworn.—Live in Tiverton; found a baby down by the fishing rocks, about the time Julia was taken up; the child was naked, between the rocks on the shore; I took a stick and moved the rock-weed off; its head only was out of water; Isaac was with me; he then went up to Job's (he means Judge Durfee's) went down again, and Mr. Field came down, but we did not move the child until he came.

Cross.—Live with my mother; had been off in a boat fishing that day; went fishing in the morning; I discovered the child first, and told Isaac.

Isaac Brown, sworn.—Was on the shore with Thomas; came up in the boat, and said he had found something; went up and saw the child on the rocks, partly in the water; it was naked; Thomas went up to Judge Durfee's and then went to Mr. Field; was there when the Jury came.

Cross.—It was early in the morning, pretty near 9 o'clock, I guess; Mr. Field came down with Thomas, in about a quarter of an hour; the tide was rising, and the wind was south; there was something of a swell on the shore.

Benjamin Field, sworn.—Thomas Brown called on me, on Tuesday, June 2d, between 8 and 10 o'clock in the morning, and said he had found a child on Judge Durfee's shore; went down and found the child on the rocks, nearly covered with rock-weed; I went and told Mrs. Durfee, and she thought something ought to be done about it; went after the Jury, and returned at 1 o'clock; the child had drifted a few feet from where it first was; it was a full grown female child; I helped bury it the same day, after the Inquest was over; the wind had been from the East for several days previous; the child could not have drifted there with the wind; it was not bruised when first found; the navel string was a foot long, and had not been cut or tied.

Cross.—Live near Judge Durfee's, the adjoining farm; Judge Durfee's house is about 100 rods from the rocks where the child was found; the pond is about the same distance; not acquainted with the setting of the tides in the river.

Andrew Williston, sworn.—Was one of the Coroner's Inquest; found the child down by the fishing rocks; was there a day or two afterwards, and found a piece of brown circassian, part of a ladies dress, on the shore, near where the child was found; saw a ladies dress of the same material, at the Court of examination; found it between high and low water mark; this (holding up the article, the skirt of a dress) is the article I found; carried it up to the house, and laid it on the ground, at Judge Durfee's; went down to see if I could not discover something of the kind on the shore, supposing there might be something, if the child was placed there by any one. We found the child on its back, on the rocks; it was high tide. The finger nails on one hand were full grown; the back was somewhat discolored, at the time the Inquest was held. The nails on the other hand had started some.

Cross.—This looks like the same article I found on the shore; I left it with George Howland, I left it first at Judge Durfee's on the ground all night, and it was rained upon. When the Court was held, went to look for it, and the boy said it was in the house, the folks wanted to see it.—Found this, either Thursday or Friday after the Inquest; went down there unknown to any one; can't tell why I went alone; had no conversation with any one as to my going there, at any time.—Never told any one of the importance of finding some garment of this kind, as I recollect. Think George Howland, put the garment into Julia's trunk. Live about 4 miles from the Stone Bridge; and work for Judge Durfee. The dress was found ten or fifteen paces from where the child was first discovered. Frequently saw Julia before this happened; she wore an ordinary dress; and a small shawl. She did all the work; there was about 12 in family. Saw a cape at Judge Durfee's that corresponded with the skirt; this is the cape.

Charles Durfee, sworn.—Was Coroner at the Inquest on the child; it was found on the rocks; after it had been out of the water a short time, it became discolored; and was very offensive; it appeared to have been in the water from 5 to 7 days. Do not recollect any general discoloration of the body when it was first found; the nails on one hand had started a little; the navel string was a foot or more in length. The body had a bloated appearance; the limbs were rather small; the face was a little distorted, and the eyes somewhat protruded; the hair was falling off from the head.

Cross.—At the time she was sick, I slept directly under her room; her apparel was that of an ordinary female at work. Had it not been for those after circumstances, I should not probably have thought of her appearance again, as it made no impression on my mind. Never saw this dress that was found on the shore, before this transaction; have been in her room, and seen her dresses as they were hanging about.

Mary Durfee, sworn.—Lived at my father's house during the sickness of Julia Donnally; was at her room during the time. She was taken sick on Friday, and I went there to carry her drink and medicine; before her sickness, found her door fastened several times during the day time. On the Friday night of her sickness, I heard several groans from the direction of her room; they were unusual, and I thought of getting up, but they ceased, and I went to sleep again; I mentioned this to my mother in the morning; I slept in the next room to the prisoner.

Cross.—My young sister, Sarah, slept with me. The groans were very loud and distinct, I heard no words. Her bed is at the head of the stairs; the workmen slept at the opposite side of the stairs.—The groans continued for about five minutes.

Sarah Borden, sworn.—Was at Judge Durfee's the day following Julia's arrest. I examined her trunk, at Mrs. Durfee's request; she suspected Julia, and wished some one, besides herself, to see the condition of her trunk. The paper was torn off, and the trunk was somewhat stained. This calico dress I found there; it had been enlarged in the waist, and the strings had been lengthened. There was a roll of flannel in the trunk, and a part of it was made into a dress for a child, about two years old; the dress was in an unfinished state; it was old flannel. Saw Julia twice before she went to Judge Durfee's. She came to my house; I told her that it was a very lonely place, and thought she would not like it, but she said she was tired of working in the Factory, and appeared entirely satisfied with the description I gave her of Judge Durfee's.

Cross.—The dress might have been sewed up to avoid the hooks, but it need not necessarily have been enlarged for that purpose. Noticed some slight milk stains on the inside of the calico dress, after she was arrested. The dress might have been enlarged to render her situation about house, in her ordinary work, more comfortable.

Thomas J. Hull, sworn.—Live at Judge Durfee's; slept in the kitchen chamber; it was near Julia Donnally's. Either Saturday or Sunday night, heard a noise which I thought was a child crying; soon after, heard some one going down stairs.

Cross.—Next night after I heard the noise, I mentioned the circumstance to Mr. Williston, and told him that I thought it was a child or a cat, and could not tell which. Don't know who it was that went down stairs, or where they went, or whether they came back or not. Don't know whether or not my door was open; can't tell what time it was; had been asleep, and think the noise aroused me. I heard this noise, and then heard something go down stairs immediately after; don't know whether it was dark or not; can't tell how long it was before I went to sleep again; think not more than five minutes.

Andrew Williston, recalled.—I slept in the same room with Hull, at the time Julia was sick; there was a ventilator over my door, which led into the entry. I was not there Saturday or Sunday nights; when I returned, he said, when we went up stairs to bed, "I wonder if I shall hear that sound again." Said I, "what sound?" he said "why I thought I heard a baby cry last night, and then some one went down stairs." He said "it might have been a cat, but he thought it was a little baby."

Dr. Samuel Web, sworn.—From what I have heard, have no doubt that a woman might be in a state of pregnancy, and be delivered without its being discovered in her appearance; I have never had such cases in my practice or experience; but I have often heard of them, and I have no doubt such things are possible. I did not see the child, but I think the body might be immersed in water at 10 or 45 degrees, and be tolerably well preserved for several days. If a woman had been confined, milk would almost necessarily flow from her breast, directly after. No doubt but that pregnancy may be concealed up to the time of delivery.

Cross.—Been in practice about 15 years, am Judge Durfee's family physician; saw Julia Donnelly, and only noticed that she was a large and well developed woman; did not discover that she was in a pregnant state; saw nothing unnatural in her appearance. Females frequently have obstructions in their menstruation; sometimes it is checked for a very long time. Some kinds of employment, such as exposure to dampness, will derange the order of nature in them; every book tells of instances of a discharge of serum from the breast where the persons were not mothers, or in a state of pregnancy. During gestation, these courses are generally obstructed, but not always, ordinarily, suppression would not affect the breathing, I should think. The prisoner might conceal pregnancy from ordinary inspection; we can generally discover it four months before delivery. After birth, there are appearances about the mother, that we can readily observe from ten days to three weeks; should think a woman like the prisoner might conceal her pregnancy, and all subsequent appearances, if a suspicious eye was not upon her. In my experience, have never known the pains of child-birth to be over in five minutes; and should not expect it, particularly in a case of first delivery.—Have read in the books of cases of virgins having given milk, and nursed children; they also speak of men giving milk.

Dr. James V. Turner, sworn.—Heard a part of the testimony in this case. A woman may be pregnant, and conceal it up to the time of delivery; known several instances, where it was not known by those who were living in the same family. A stranger, of course, might conceal it more easily than one who had long been known by those around her. Within a fortnight or even a month, we could easily tell whether or not a woman had been a mother; after the lapse of three months, it would be very difficult, and perhaps almost impossible to tell. Exposure to cold generally obstructs the course of menstruation; after resumption of these discharges, there may be an offensive smell from it. There might also be indisposition attendant upon such a resumption. When a young woman has been confined for the first time, there would very generally be after circumstances, and appearances, that would be observed. All these things would not take place within five minutes—five hours would not be an usual time to expect the after-birth. A discharge of milk from the breast is not a conclusive evidence that pregnancy has been passed through. After pregnancy, when a child is not nursed, the breast very often cakes over, or becomes broken in four or five days; if this did not occur, it would dry up in the course of time, but probably not in less than a month.

Asa Gray, sworn.—Was the Magistrate before whom the prisoner was examined; an offer was made to her at the time, to be examined by Dr. West, and if it appeared that she had not been pregnant, she would be discharged. She was also told that if she did not submit to this examination, she would be subjected to all the inferences that would be drawn from the refusal. She declined to be examined.

The Court adjourned to 3 o'clock.

Friday Afternoon.

The Court met at 3 o'clock, pursuant to adjournment.

The Prisoner was brought into Court by the Sheriff.

The Attorney General here stated that all the testimony for the Government was in, unless it might be necessary to offer some to rebut that produced by the Prisoner.

George Turner, Esq., then opened the case in defence of the Prisoner. He said that the jury were as well aware of the novelty of the case before them, as he himself was. He spoke of the lone and destitute situation of the young lady, and being ignorant of our institutions; and having been assigned by the Court as Counsel for the Prisoner, it was his duty to do all in his power to see that she had a fair and impartial trial. She came here entirely unprepared to defend herself, and the testimony that he should offer, would be such as he had been able to collect, since he had been called upon to defend her. Without further remark, he would proceed to call the witnesses for the Prisoner.

Catharine Donnelly, recalled.—Am acquainted with the nature of my sister's wardrobe, and know what clothing she possessed. I never saw this skirt and cape until the Court below examined my sister; I have seen this calico gown before. The skirt and cape were never in her possession, to my knowledge; and had they been, I should have known it. We came over to this country as steerage passengers; we found ourselves, and our provisions were brought in this trunk; it was wet all the time. When Julia went to Judge Durfee's, she took that trunk; there was always a very unpleasant smell about the trunk, after we left the ship.

Cross.—Never told Mrs. Borden that my sister had a skirt like this; Julia never owned it.

Direct.—These femail garments belonged to Julia; I wore them coming over in the ship.

Mrs. Borden, recalled.—I think one of these pieces of flannel I have seen before; the other I never saw before, it is much larger than that I saw. I asked Catharine, going down to the Town House, at the Court of examination, if Julia ever had such a dress as this brown skirt, and she said that she had; but she might not have understood the nature of my question.

Thomas Donnelly, sworn.—Came over with my sister; we were steerage passengers.

Our provisions were kept in this trunk; the weather was very moist.

I knew what my sister's clothing consisted of, and she never had this brown skirt and cape. She was not sick while at Fall River; I knew nothing of her being in a family way; had she been, think I should have discovered it.

Levi Albert, sworn.—Live about 2 miles south of the Stone Bridge. Have seen Julia Donnelly before; she staid at my house from Saturday night to Tuesday morning after her arrest; she was placed there by George Howland, and during that time, there was no indications of her having given birth to a child; examined her with my eye pretty closely.

Joshua R. Rathbone, sworn.—I attended and aided the Prisoner in the Court of examination; advised her not to submit to any examination at all; afterwards it was suggested by Judge Durfee that she should have her breast examined, and if it appeared that there was no milk there, she would be discharged; I, in her behalf objected to this, and she was governed by my advice, and did not submit to the examination.—

(Here the witness explained the course of the tides and currents at the place where the child was found.) Heard a child was found, and went to the shore in the afternoon of the day it was found; went south about 5 rods, and 15 or 20 north; went there expressly to see if I could find any articles of clothing; there was none there;

if there had been, I must have seen them,

as I went there for that purpose.

Cross.—I advised her not to submit to an examination, because I did not believe she would have been discharged, even if milk was not found in her breast. I did not know how it was, and I knew that there had been instances where serum was found in the breast, of women who were not, and had not been in a state of pregnancy; therefore I thought it best for her not to submit to an examination.

Rhoda Albro, sworn.—Am 64 years old;

am a nurse, and have followed this business 15 years. Was in Mr. Taggart's family, as a nurse, a few days after Julia Donnelly was brought there. I did not think that there was any appearance of Julia's having had a child; Mrs. Taggart examined her very closely in my presence; there was no milk in her breast, and no appearance of there having been any. She had an unwillingness to be examined by us, but submitted to it cheerfully.

Cross.—This examination was made a week or ten days after Julia came there;

her breasts were examined by pressing them. Have known instances where women had milk in their breast, when they had not nursed a child, and when the milk was not drawn away. From my experience in such matters, I do not believe that she has had a child.

Dr. James V. Turner, recalled.—I should not think an examination made as late as that spoken of by Mrs. Albro, could be relied on effectually, unless taken in connection with other circumstances.

Dr. Charles Cotton, sworn.—Have been in practice 34 years. Females sometimes have milk, or rather serum in their breast when not in a state of pregnancy. Suppression of menstruation will often cause a fullness of the breast, and a general swelling of the body. A female in the steerage of a ship at sea, when it was wet and damp, would have a tendency to be affected in the system generally, and it would produce an irregularity. Immediately after delivery, an examination within a fortnight, we can almost invariably tell whether or not a woman has been confined. The length of time of the milk remaining in the breast would depend somewhat on the means adopted to draw off the milk, and also upon the constitution and general habits of the female. As a general thing, we should hardly expect a first delivery to be speedy, for they are commonly longer than subsequent ones. At a first birth, there must be marks of it left about the bed and clothing; sometimes there is a great flow of blood and water. The after-birth takes place in from fifteen minutes up to an hour; this has the appearance of the lungs of an animal, more than any thing else, and varies in weight from a pound, to a pound-and-a-half. A suppression of menstruation is often attended with faintness, and a difficulty of breathing; should think such a suppression would produce such symptoms as those described in the present case.

Mrs. Durfee, recalled.—During the Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights Julia was sick, I do not know whether or not she burnt a light. Did not notice this unpleasant smell before; I had been in her room, but made no particular examination of her trunk.

Theophilus C. Dunn, sworn.—Am a practising Physician in Newport. The appearance of milk in the breast is one of the most fallacious evidences of pregnancy; it is often caused by an obstruction of menstruation, and this suppression is often caused by dampness and an exposure to wet weather.

From ten days to three weeks, after a female's first delivery, we might tell whether or not she had been delivered of a child, but it would not be certain then; after that, it would be extremely difficult to ascertain by any remaining evidences. It would be very difficult for a female to deliver herself alone, in the night, and in the dark, without some evidences being lost; it would not, however, be impossible.

Cross.—There would be evidences of the usual evasions discovered, under such circumstances, unless they were removed from the room. Suppression of menstruation, as in the case described, might cause the symptoms which have been sworn to.

Dr. Daniel Watson, sworn.—Been in practice 22 years. Have known a discharge of serum from the breast, when the person was not in a pregnant state; should think when there was milk in the breast, when not in a state of pregnancy, it would be caused by sympathy with a disordered womb, either from suppressed menstruation, or some other cause.

As a general rule, the first labors of a woman are always longer and more painful, than subsequent ones; there would be evidences of the delivery, such as evasions of blood and water, sometimes the latter is more copious than the former. As a general thing, it could hardly be expected that a woman could deliver herself, as in the case in question, without detection.

Benjamin Field, recalled.—After the discovery of the child on the shore, I had a conversation with Andrew Williston, and advised him to go to the shore and see if he could not discover clothing there of some kind; I think he had already found the skirt. I do not recollect of any other conversation on the subject with any one.

Isaac Barker, sworn.—Was at Fall River the Saturday before the examination, and in a conversation with Benjamin Field about this case, he said they were about taking up that Irish girl, as there was some new light on the subject.

The testimony of this witness was objected to by the Attorney General, on the ground of irrelevancy and it was ruled out by the Court.

The Prisoners council attempted to show that a conversation had been had between Barker and Field as to what the latter had said to Williston; but as the Government had asked Field no questions on the subject, the Court ruled; Barker's testimony could not be admitted, as it was incompetent for the Prisoners counsel to introduce testimony to rebut anything brought out by their own cross-examination, and not enquired into by the Government.

Asa Gray, recalled.—At the court of examination, it was only proposed to examine the breasts of the prisoner; I do not recollect particularly as to what was said about examining the under garments.

The testimony on both sides being all in, George Turner, Esq., addressed the Jury at length in behalf of the Prisoner. He traced the career of Miss Donnelly from the time of her leaving Europe down to her arrest for the crime with which she was now on trial. He commented very clearly upon all the evidence offered, showing that the circumstantial testimony introduced by the Government, having been rebutted and explained by that in behalf of the Prisoner, it was impossible for them to come to the conclusion that she was guilty. His argument was concise and able, evincing a great deal of ingenuity and professional skill.

Durham J. Pearce, Esq., closed the case in behalf of the Prisoner, in a lengthy speech, in which he fully commented upon all the testimony in the case; explaining that which at first sight appeared to be of so strong a circumstantial nature, as to convince any mind of the guilt of the Prisoner. We shall not attempt to give even an outline of the argument, as it would occupy too much space, and we should not probably do it justice. Suffice it to say, it was earnest and powerful, in which full justice was done to the Prisoner, particularly that portion of it which related to Miss Donnelly's lone and destitute situation.

The Court adjourned until to-morrow morning, at 9 o'clock.

Saturday morning.

The Court met at 9 o'clock, pursuant to adjournment. The Prisoner was brought into Court, by the Sheriff. Joseph M. Blaine, Esq., Attorney General, closed the case for the Government, in an able speech, in which he replied to the Counsel for the Prisoner, telling the Jury that they were bound by their oaths not to permit their sympathies to be operated upon, either in favor or against the Prisoner. It was their duty to render a true verdict according to the law and facts of the case, irrespective of any feeling on the subject. He then commented fully upon the testimony, argued that the facts sworn to, fully substantiated the guilt of the Prisoner, and asking for such a verdict, in the full and impartial discharge of their duty. Some portions of his speech were eloquent, and the whole was very creditable to him as a Prosecuting Officer.

As the Prisoner, lived in the family of the chief Justice, he did not sit on the trial, and Judge Haile charged the Jury in an able and impartial manner. He said the jurors were bound by the solemn oaths which they had taken, not to permit their feelings or sympathies to be operated upon, either in favor or against the prisoner, but it was their simple and imperative duty to weigh all the testimony in the case, and then come to such a conclusion as the facts sworn to warranted. This, and this alone would be a full discharge of their duty; appeals for mercy shall be made to the Court, but not to the Jury. He told them to take all that had been sworn to, and retire to their room, and, after mature deliberation, in the language of their oaths, true deliverance make between the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, and the Prisoner at the Bar.

At 11 o'clock, the Jury retired, and at the meeting at the Court, at half past 2 o'clock in the afternoon, they came in, and stated that they were unable to agree; after a consultation between the Court and Counsel, the Jury retired again, and in half an hour returned, and being called by the Clerk, and all answering to their names, the Clerk said, Mr. Foreman, have you agreed on a verdict?

Foreman.—We have.

Clerk.—What say you, Mr. Foreman, is the Prisoner at the Bar guilty, or not guilty?

Foreman.—NOT GUILTY.

When the verdict was rendered, the Court room being crowded, a loud applause passed through the audience, which was immediately silenced by the Sheriff. Such a demonstration was never before witnessed in a Court of Justice in Newport County, with a single exception, and it was severely rebuked by Judge Haile; in a most emphatic manner.

The Attorney General then stated that he knew of no reason why the Prisoner should not be discharged from custody; she was accordingly discharged by the Court, and immediately retired through the crowd, with her sister and brother.

Much excitement existed during the progress of the trial, and the Court room was densely crowded all the time: The prisoner is young and very handsome, and we have rarely witnessed a sweeter or more interesting expression in any young lady's face, than in hers; she appeared very much depressed during the trial, and several times was faint. Her deportment was extremely modest and becoming, and her whole appearance gave evidence that she moved in a different circle in her native country, from most of that nation who come to America.

There was something novel in this trial, as there has never been one of the kind in Rhode Island before; there was a great deal of medical knowledge displayed by the professional gentlemen who were examined in the course of the trial,—and without expressing any opinion ourselves, as to the merits of the case, we will simply say that the unfortunate young lady found many friends among the strangers who were around her, who sympathized with her misfortune, and aided her by their liberality. After the acquittal, the sum of twenty-four dollars was raised by gentlemen near by, within a short time, and presented to her. The verdict meets with very general approbation.

We have published a report of this case, in consequence of its novelty, and because many persons wish to know all the proceedings, who were unable to attend Court, and who could not have got in, had they desired to, in consequence of the excessive crowd.

TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. BANNING'S PATENT LACE!

An immediate Relief to Incipient Consumption, the Bronchitis of Public Speakers, Pulpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Spinal Weakness, Piles, Protrusion, and Diseases of Women, without Medicines.

THIS instrument has been examined by Drs. Mott, Rodgers, Francis, and Griscom of New York, the faculty of Pittsburgh, Hartford, New Haven and Middletown, and has obtained for itself their favorable testimony. The following will show what kind of testimony might be produced in many cases:

Middletown, June 25th, 1843.

Dr. Boardman,

Sir—In answer to your inquiry respecting my case, I will merely say, that I have been sick since I strained my breast and loins in May, 1836, from that time continued to grow worse, when in the fall of '38, I abandoned business, and have not done any thing since. I suppose from all I could learn about my case—frequently raising blood, coughing very hard and expectorating profusely, deriving no benefit from my physicians, and all medicines recommended to me, that my case was hopeless. Last winter my brother told me he had heard a good account of Dr. Banning's Lace in such gases, and was anxious that I should try it; accordingly I procured one from you, and since I began to wear it, my breathing, which was very short and laborious, has become easy and natural; the pain and fluttering or palpitation of the heart has subsided, cough and expectoration greatly lessened, my limbs which were exceedingly painful have become useful, so that I can walk comfortably. I am able to shave myself with comfort, which for many years I have not been able to do. The piles, which have troubled me for nine years, are nearly eradicated. I work some in the garden, and am able to ride 4 miles at once with pleasure and benefit.

Yours, &c. WM. RANNEY.

Dr. G. M. Boardman,

Sir—I have been much afflicted for many years with headache, pain in the breast, side, back and limbs, attended with loss of appetite, dizziness, languor, drowsiness, and a general debility of the whole system: for which I have tried all the usual remedies, both externally and internally, without obtaining any permanent relief. I was induced to try Dr. Banning's Patent Lace, and the benefit derived from it surpasses all my expectations. I have not been so free from pain, nor enjoyed so good health at this season of the year, for the last twenty years, and I attribute it entirely to the use of the lace.

WM. WOODWARD.

Middletown, June, 1843.

Middletown, June 25, 1843.

Dr. Boardman,

Dear Sir—In answer to your inquiries respecting the effect of Dr. Banning's Lace in the case of my wife, I will state that for twenty years past, she has been afflicted with a complication of complaints to which females are subject. She has tried all the physicians and all the medicines recommended for such complaints, without regard to expense, and found only temporary relief. Her most distressing complaints, palpitation of the heart, oppression, and a sense of great weight at the pit of the stomach, prolapsus of the womb, &c., were relieved after wearing the lace two hours, and she has continued to improve daily. With this view of the case I cannot use language strong enough to convey my approval of the instrument, aug. 29th. STEPHEN BROOKS, J.A.

LORRAINE'S PILLS.

All persons require Facts.

DR. LORRAINE'S CURATIVE SYSTEM OF MEDICINE is rapidly producing achievements never before known in the cure of diseases. The immensity of its wonderful results, alone demonstrate that its principles must be founded on truth. The relative proportion of Cures by this Medicine is out of all proportion greater, than by any other Medicine known.

THE THEORY is, that one blood beats in the bosom, and flows through the body of every man, and must be pure, it is the Vital Principle that sustains life.

Physicians, and people of every class are willing to come forward and announce, in the most public manner that they have been cured of long standing complaints—after another medicine had failed. In fact there can be no doubt but that Lorraine's vegetable Pill is the best medicine ever offered to the public.

See a few public statements of men of truth and virtue.

Lynn, Dec. 17th, 1843.

Sir: I have sold all the pills I last had of you, please send another lot immediately. The sale of Lorraine's vegetable Pill is rapidly on the increase, they are becoming very popular. I sell more and more every day. As a curative medicine and purifier of the blood. I think they stand unrivaled. One fact I have noticed, that no one that has used them finds any fault with them; they have wrought some very great cures. On old lady, who has been confined to the house and bed, a great part of the time, for twenty years, is now cured and able to work most of her time, after having taken 3 boxes only of Lorraine's Pill. I might name many other cases where the cures have been as great, but have not time.

Yours respectfully,

J. E. F. MARSH.

Portland, Me., Nov. 18th, 1843.

Sir: Please send me one gross of Lorraine's Pill, we have sold all we had last. They have given very good satisfaction, better than any other pills which we have in our market. I think in a short time they will take the place of others. We have had no fault found with them whatever, but, on the contrary, they have been praised loudly; I think we could have quite a number of highly respectable certificates from our citizens.

Yours respectfully, E. MASON.

Chelsea, Jan. 3d, 1844.

Sir: I transmit to you an account of my case for publication, believing it to be my duty. I have been confined with the Rheumatism nearly the whole winter, have had some of the best physicians of Boston and could get nothing that would relieve me more than temporarily. I heard of the wonderful virtue of Lorraine's Pill, I had no faith whatever, but I took them, and it is a solemn fact that when I had taken but eight pills! my Rheumatism had entirely left me, and I have remained well ever since.

N. B. I never took more than one pill at a time and that on going to bed.

Yours respectfully, W. M. HALSTAL.

OPINION OF A SKILFUL PHYSICIAN.

Sir, the operation of Lorraine's Pill is past any philosophy to find out, how so small a Pill can produce such wonderful effects. I find that one of them will operate more than 3 or 4 of any other Pill, yet in their operation, mild, gentle and comforting. On this account, they are more than 100 percent, cheaper, as physic, than any other Medicine I know of.

These Pills are now acknowledged by thousands who take them daily, to be the only medicine that fairly takes the Bander from all others. This extraordinary medicine has actually done Wonders within one year past. They cause no pain or uneasiness of any kind in their operation, and require neither change of diet or care of any kind.

The attention of the reader is respectfully called to the important results from the use of these Pills. It will be seen, however great achievements have heretofore been made by the use of this invaluable medicine, still greater and more remarkable cures daily happen.

CORNS!

MADAM BERHARD, Corn Doctor, (from Paris) politely announces her arrival from N. York, to the citizens and visitors of Newport, and will feel obliged to those who will honor her with a call, at Mr. BLISHA S. KENYON'S, corner of Thames and Young-streets, the honor to inform the public that, by a new and peculiar method, she extracts Hard and Soft Corns, Bunions, Callous, &c., Without Cutting.

Madam B. does not attempt to offer a nostrum, requiring secrecy or faith to require its efficacy, but confidently assuring those who may suffer from troublesome and painful Corns, that they may have the satisfaction of carrying away their tormentor, their Corn, in their hands.

Madam B. has been practising in the U. States for six years, and in that time she has received testimonials from some of the most eminent ladies and gentlemen, as to the benefit and comfort which they have received since their feet have been attended to by her. The operation will not occupy more than 10 minutes, and the relief is so instantaneous that persons thus treated can put on their shoes and walk without the least inconvenience.

Madam B. has practised her profession for several years in Boston, New York, Germany, France, and England, and has acquired much skill, and great practical experience—a fact attested by numerous certificates from the most celebrated physicians both of Europe and America, as well as from the nobility and gentry of those countries, delivered to her after four month's cure.

Ladies and gentlemen will be waited upon at their residence.

Ladies and gentlemen who wish Madam B.'s services, are invited to call as soon as possible.

Madam B. has in her possession upwards of 1,500 certificates.

From the Philadelphia Enquirer and Courier.

RELIEF TO THE AFFLICTED.—We adduced a few days since to the remarkable, efficacious and painless method adopted by Madam Berhard, of 459 Broadway, N. Y. and 151 Court street, Boston, in extracting Corns and curing troublesome Tumors of the feet. We are now induced to refer again to the subject, partly in consequence of more than one friend having called upon us, to record their testimony as to the sudden and entire relief they have experienced from the operation of Professor; and chiefly because so many persons are in the habit of advertising remedies for Corns, &c., which are mere empiricism and pretence. The parties who are now in our office, and who have been under the treatment of Madam Berhard, assures us that they did not experience the slightest pain during the process of extraction, and that it was accomplished with almost magical celerity. We observe also that some of the most eminent Physicians, both of Boston and New York, as well as of this city, have given testimonials to the above effect to Madam Berhard, the writers having experienced a relief from Corns, which had pained them for years. From the Boston Atlas.

Madam Berhard, at 151 Court street, is said by those who have experienced relief at her hands, to effect a radical cure of the most inveterate corns. There is said to be no mistake about it. It is a great discovery, and we recommend all the afflicted to try.
